

ABOUT

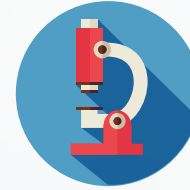

TASK APPLIED SCIENCE IS BASED IN CAPE TOWN SOUTH AFRICA AND DEVELOP NOVELTIES IN HEALTHCARE. TASK IS BEST KNOWN FOR PERFORMING CLINICAL TRIALS IN TUBERCULOSIS.

Established as a TB clinical trials site in 2005 by professor Andreas Diacon, TASK Applied Science has since grown into a full spectrum clinical research centre, driven by 170 passionate staff deployed in 6 locations, including a state of the art laboratory and clinical pharmacy.

FACILITIES & TEAM

- 2 In-patient clinics
- 40 Participant beds
- 3 Out-patient community based clinics
- P3 laboratory
- Clinical pharmacy
- 15 Full-time Medical doctors
- 20 Nurses

CLINICAL TRIALS

- Advancement of clinical and microbiological research for diagnosis and treatment effects
- Vaccine and diagnostic trials in various diseases

P3 DIAGNOSTIC LABORATORY SERVICES

- High quality diagnostic microbiology laboratory services
- Standardised clinical trial services in pre-analytical, analytical and post-analytical procedures

WE OFFER

DATA MANAGEMENT

- Initiation and deployment of clinical trials data base management systems
- Custom built data base management systems

GOOD CLINICAL PRACTICE

- Certified training and facilitation of good clinical practice
- Accredited theory based modules with practical training for clinicians and support staff

FAST FACTS

12

Years of operation

32

Clinical trials successfully completed

5000+

Trial participants

6

Sites in the Western Cape

RECOGNITION

Awarded scientific prize at the international union against tuberculosis & lung disease conference

Featured in the New England Journal of Medicine and Forbes Africa

FDA and EMA inspected

SPONSORS & AFFILIATES

